

Justice Access Point under the civilian oversight and security sector reform project is conducting a 2 weeks visitation campaign in 28 policing districts in Uganda. The visitations are part of a comprehensive research effort that will culminate in the compilation of the Annual Status Report on Policing in Uganda. The report will provide data to aid both policy makers and practitioners in the security sector in Uganda design evident-driven reform.

This advocacy campaign will run from
22nd Aug-6th Sept 2024

This campaign is sponsored
